*“Whoever does the will of God is

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, from whom all good things come, grant that we, who call on you in our need, may at your prompting discern what is right, and by your guidance do it. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a clue to the goal of our spiritual life. "For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." Spiritual growth is a matter of aligning our will with God's will. Time that we spend in God's presence can deepen our awareness of God's will for us and for the world God has created.

In the hustle and bustle of daily life, it is often hard to stay aware of what God has in mind for us and for others. To live each day in love, to seek the good of all rather than our selfish desires, is only possible if we are united with the love of God. Our time of prayer and reflection can attune our hearts to the heart of God, which can sustain us in our efforts to make our lives reflect God's will in all things.
